Sunday, November 27 – 11:00 am, TED Talk and discussion. We will be watching “My stroke of insight” with Jill Bolte Taylor, Ph. D.

Jill Bolte Taylor got a research opportunity few brain scientists would wish for: She had a massive stroke, and watched as her brain functions -- motion, speech, self-awareness -- shut down one by one. An astonishing story. (Retrieved 10/21/22, https://www.ted.com/talks/jill_bolte_taylor_my_stroke_of_insight)

Safety Guidelines: Please stay home if you feel unwell. (Most services are available via Zoom.)
Masks are not required, but anyone wishing to do so is welcome.

Immediately following the service on November 20, we will gather for the annual Thanksgiving Dinner. All are welcome. An email RSVP will go out the first week of November asking for a reply if you plan to attend, as well as to let us know what dish you plan to bring. We hope you will join us.

Eye on the Board

The board met Friday, October 28th:

- September was a better month financially with the gas bill being the only standard bill with an increase. The endowment was down in September but has made some recovery in October.
- The pulpit is all set for November. Except for five dates that are still being worked on, the schedule is set until the end of August 2023.
- Details for the upcoming Thanksgiving Dinner were discussed, and the board mini retreat was moved to Saturday, November 12.

What does the developing climate crisis mean for the life of our faith communities? Join us as we consider how different UU spiritualities in NY State can help inform the ways we respond to the unfolding climate crisis. Let's explore how our spirituality can ground us in the difficulties of the moment.

Sponsored by: NY UU Collaborates, a growing working group including UU Ministry for Earth, Fourth Universalist Church, and NY UUs for Justice. Funding provided by the New York State Convention of Universalists.

NY UU Collaborates is working together to organize a series of four forums on Zoom this year on the climate crisis and our UU faith life. Here is the video to October's conversation, featuring Pacific Island Students Fighting Climate Change and UU Service Committee.
