New Additions To The Ministerial Team

Julie Taylor is a member of the Unitarian Universalist Church of Buffalo where she volunteers as a worship associate, supporting the worship hour and occasionally delivering sermons. She has been a UU since 1994 when she walked into her first UU church and found a spiritual home that she continued in the Buffalo church. She has taught religious education, served on the Nominating Committee, the Personnel Committee, and the Board of Trustees. Her current passion is spreading a spiritual message for Unitarian Universalists. She lives in North Buffalo with her husband, three children, and three grandcats.

Lisa Peterangelo is a member of the UU Church of Amherst. She is a Unitarian Universalist Ministerial Candidate from the Buffalo area. She graduated with her M.Div. from Colgate Rochester Crozer Divinity School in 2017. She has been a Chaplain since 2010 working in hospitals, nursing homes and presently with Hospice Buffalo. She has worked as a Director of Religious Education for the Buffalo congregation and supports other churches in her area with spiritual care, and pulpit supply. Lisa has an interest in mental health issues, 12-step recovery, and congregational dynamics.

Teaching U.S. History & Unpacking The Terms ‘Woke’ And ‘Critical Race Theory’

Monday, October 10, 6:30 pm to 8:00 pm
Hoag Library, Pilon & Curtis Room, Albion

“This presentation will include the showing of W. Kamau Bell’s “United Shades of America” on a July 7, 2022 episode entitled “The Woke War” and an interactive discussion lead by a panel of responders. Kamau Bell has hosted the CNN series “United Shades of America” since 2016. Known as a comedian and political commentator, Bell tackles many very relevant and controversial issues around the country. In this episode, he travels to Arizona and “talks with parents and educators to hear both sides of CRT” and how it relates to the education of our youth.” (Press release)

Welcoming Our Newest Member – Dylan Miller

Signing the book and making it official.

Dylan and his mother, Holly Miller, getting ready to have some cake.

Eye on the Board

The board met on September 23, 2022.

- Per the treasurer, the NYSEG bill has increased significantly. Chris will call to check on the amount. The endowment has gone down with the stock market volatility. Unfortunately, the expectation is that the volatility will continue.
- The Building & Grounds Committee commented that work on the roof will begin October 3rd.
- Inactive member letters were sent out earlier this summer. The list was reviewed, and those who did not respond removed from the UUA list.
- The pulpit is all set for October. The Pulpit Committee is checking on a few additional people that may be interested in doing a service in the future.
- A Board of Trustees mini-retreat will be held November 6th.
